

14-May-06

Dear Members,

We hope this letter finds you all well and your creative careers are prospering. We would like to thank all the members that attended our night out at the Tate which was a great opportunity to get to know each other better and look forward to more creative jaunts! This month's HVAF forum meeting 28-May-06 will be focused on mapping out the summer's creative calendar and organizing the events that we have been successful in receiving funding for, the photo jam, info booth & painted by you.

AGENDA HVAF meeting 08-May-06 Roxteh room 2pm, Hatch end arts centre

Photo jam (emerge funded) – we would like artist that are interested in assisting to organizing, marketing and volunteering during event. We will use this funding to create a unique event to not only bring to our members affordable images of their work digitally recorded at a reasonable price but also raise funds for the future of HVAF. This event will be open to all artists around London however HVAF members will be given a discounted rate.

Painted By You (Arts culture harrow funded) – 2 Artist skilled in workshop leadership will create a live street workshop by interacting with the public and encouraging them to participate. Painters at work, we would like several artist painting live at their own canvases during Harrow Arts Festival street festival 8th July 06 while workshop lead artists interact with the public encourage them to paint large canvas. We have fees for the lead artists for preparation work and event delivery with a budget for materials. We now need you as our members to get involved to make this an exciting event.

Info booth arts festival - Artist from the HVAF would like to have a space at the information point to promote our forum with the arts festival and raise awareness of the forum within the community of harrow by giving a face to the local artist. We would create a display showing a selection of artist work & post cards with volunteers from the HVAF committee & membership encouraging the public to find out more about the forum and recruit new visual artist to our membership. This event will highlight the skills; reputations & professionalism of the artist within the borough of the HVAF however offer all levels of artist the opportunity for inclusion within our forum. We would like to hear from our members who would like to volunteer to assist in the delivery of this project during the harrow arts festival street festival day 8th July 06

Call for workshop leaders! We have an opportunity for artists to hold workshops during the under one sky event. We have been given a budget which will pay for artist and materials so please attend this forum meeting if you are interested.

Congratulations! To two of our artist Clair McDermott & Gilda Baron on their exhibitions held within London.

Tim oleman is creating a land art project that will start on the 14-06-06 till 10-06-06 in various parts of the woods and around the lake of the Ruislip lido for more info contact timoleman@aol.com
